As the cardinals prepare to go into conclave this week to elect a new pope for the Church, let us keep them and the whole church constantly in our prayers. We will pray the Litany and offer up prayers at the end of each Mass this weekend.

"O God, eternal shepherd, who govern your flock with unfailing care, grant in your boundless fatherly love a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen." (The Roman Missal)

CHRISM MASS

Wednesday 27th March, 5.00pm at Plymouth Cathedral.

All are most welcome, especially those preparing for baptism and confirmation and those who are looking forward to being received into full communion of the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil.

The Chrism Mass is held during Holy Week every year. During this mass, the priests, deacons and representatives of the entire diocesan community gather around their Bishop, who blesses the Holy Oils - the Oil of the Sick, Oil of Catuchumens and the Sacred Chrism - for use in the coming year. Whenever the Holy Oils are used, the ministry of the Bishop who consecrated them is symbolically present. The Chrism Mass reminds us of our oneness in Christ through Baptism. It is also a key moment in which the unity of the Bishop with his priests is manifested and renewed. During the liturgy, all present are called to renew their baptismal promises; priests and deacons also renew their vow of obedience to their Bishop and their commitment to serve God's people. At the end of the Chrism Mass, the Holy Oils are brought back to the parishes of the diocese for use in the coming year.
