AID TO THE CHURCH IN NEED

Aid to the Church in Need is an international charity that helps persecuted and oppressed Christians around the world, through prayer, information and action. The crisis facing Christians in Syria continues to worsen as persecution reaches unprecedented levels. During the weekend of 5th/6th December Elizabeth McMahon will giving an appeal on behalf of the Christians in Syria and there will be a retiring collection after all masses.

HOSPITAL CHAPLAINCY

If members of the parish are going into hospital or are admitted as an emergency, it is important that you inform the hospital chaplaincy service or a member of the hospital staff if you wish to receive the sacraments or a pastoral visit from a Catholic Priest. If you or someone on your behalf can let Fr. Peter know or contact the Parish Office, we will make sure this happens.

ST BLAISE TOWN CAROL SERVICE

Sunday 13th December, 6.00pm at St. Blaise Church.

Anyone who would like to join the Parish of Par choir in the singing of some Christmas songs at this service is most welcome to go to their rehearsals on Wednesdays 25th November and 2nd December at 7.30pm at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Par.

CORNWALL COLD WEATHER PROVISION

As the coldest time of the year approaches St. Petroc's is making plans to run a Winter Night Shelter at its centre in Truro during December and January. As this will not meet the needs of all those who will be sleeping rough the churches are working in partnership with St. Petroc's to open an additional temporary shelter in Camborne. This project will need a lot of volunteers who will be offered full training and support by St. Petroc's staff and travel expense will be provided. If anyone in the parish is interested in volunteering and would like more information about what is involved please contact Andrew Yates: 01872 274351 or email: Andrew.yates@truro.anglican.org or Corinna Langford at St. Petroc's: 01872 264153, email: corinna.langford@stpetrocs.org.uk. Further details and application forms are also available from the Parish Office.
