FLOWER FESTIVAL

Very many thanks to all who worked so hard and gave their talents, time and care so that our 25th Anniversary Flower Festival was not only a joyful celebration of our parish community but also reached out to the wider community with welcome and Christian love. A great deal of people put in so much time and hard work to organise and run the festival. Especial thanks go to Angela Hyland and her team of flower arrangers - what a stunning display of loveliness, St. Augustine's has surely never looked so good! We will publish the figure for the amount of money the Flower Festival made next week.

CAFOD HARVEST FAMILY FAST DAY—Friday 2nd October

For years, the people of Douchi in southern Niger enjoyed a plentiful harvest. More recently though, regular droughts and flooding have devastated the region and repeatedly destroyed harvests. As a result, families are forced to survive on one meal a day. However, working with local CAFOD partners, they are determined to grow and harvest enough crops to feed themselves and their family, protect their local environment, and adapt to the climate hazards they increasingly face. The Harvest Fast Day collection, after all masses this weekend, 3rd/4th October, gives us an opportunity to respond to their need and support them on their journey. If you are a tax payer and wish to gift aid your donation, CAFOD envelopes are available in the Narthex. Thank you.

CORNWALL CATHOLIC CHOIR

The Cornwall Catholic Choir meets again next Saturday 10th October at 10.30am.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

The RCIA sessions will begin again this Monday 5th October at 7.00pm in Cuthbert Mayne Room. If you, or someone you know, have expressed an interest in the Catholic Church, the RCIA sessions are the means of exploring the Faith in a relaxed and informal manner. Any parishioners wishing to more fully understand aspects of their own Catholic Faith will also be most welcome. Please come along on Monday.

HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL DAY

'Neutrality helps the oppressor, never the victim. Silence encourages the tormentor, never the tormented.' (Ellie Wiesel, Holocaust survivor and author)
Holocaust Memorial Day is held on 27th January every year - the anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz - as a time for everyone to remember those who were murdered, or had their lives changed beyond recognition, in the Holocaust and in the genocides that have happened subsequently. Many churches throughout the UK commemorate with activities such as: prayers, candle lighting, small displays held on or around the day. There is a free workshop on Tuesday 13th October from 1.00pm - 4.00pm in Bodmin for anyone interested in organising an activity for HMD. If you are interested you can book your place by following this link: <http://hmd.org.uk/news/book-your-place-on-our-hmd-workshops>.
