REQUIESCAT IN PACE

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Sheila Riche who died on Sunday and for her family at this sad time. Sheila moved from Lostwithiel to live with her son a couple of years ago but will be remembered with great affection by many parishioners - a gentle, dignified lady who quietly made a significant contribution to the life of the Church here at St Augustine's

WELCOMERS

I suspect we have all experienced occasions as a visitor in an unfamiliar church, when we have felt unwelcome and rather lost. At St Augustine's, the most important ministry of welcoming both regular parishioners and visitors to our parish as they come into the church for Mass, is one that we do well. However, to continue to fulfil this ministry effectively, we are in urgent need of a few more volunteers, particularly for the 10.30am Sunday Mass. If you feel able to offer to serve the Church in this way and to become part of the Welcoming team (you will be part of a rota and are not committing yourself to be 'on duty' every Sunday), please could you have a word with Fr Peter or one of the Welcomers who will be able to give you more details of what is involved.

SERVICE OF PENITENCE AND HEALING

In his recent pastoral letter concerning revelations of sex abuse in the Catholic Church, Bishop Mark wrote of asking the deacons and priests to come together in the three counties of the diocese to pray together in services of penitence and healing. The service for Cornwall will be on Friday 7th December at 7 pm at Our Lady of the Portal, Truro. All who wish to do so are invited to join the Bishop and clergy for this service.

CATENIAN WIVES COFFEE MORNING

The next informal coffee morning will be this Wednesday 28th November. We meet in the café of the Eden Project visitor's centre between 10.00am and 11.30am. Although this monthly coffee morning is primarily for Catenian wives and widows, it is open to friends and family, and all are most welcome. Eden Project membership is not required and parking is free.

APOSTLESHIP OF THE SEA - Christmas Presents

We are appealing please for gifts of: toiletries, socks, knitted hats, fingerless gloves, sweets, chocolate, and also unwanted rosaries. Thank you in advance! Please leave any contributions in the basket in the Narthex (marked for the Apostleship of the Sea). The gifts will be wrapped after Mass this Friday 30th November and any help with this would be most welcome. The gifts will be delivered to crews visiting the ports of Falmouth and Fowey throughout December, with strict instructions not to open the parcels until the 25th!

COMPANIONS OF ST MONICA

Carlyon Bay Hotel Christmas Lunch: A reminder to the ladies of CSM that the annual lunch is this coming Friday 30th November at 12.30pm for 1.00pm. If you are able to offer a lift or are in need of a lift to the Carlyon Bay Hotel, please meet in St Augustine's car park at 12 noon.

Flower Arranging Demonstration: All parishioners are warmly invited to join the Companions of St Monica for their next meeting when Angela Hyland and Pat Whitehouse will be giving a festive flower arranging demonstration. This will be followed by mince pies and mulled wine. Please note that this meeting is on Thursday 6th December at 2.00pm not next Tuesday 27th November, as previously advertised in the newsletter - as is not unfrequently the case, the Parish Secretary was a bit slow on the uptake!

JUSTICE AND PEACE GROUP

SLEEPING BAGS FOR THE HOMELESS

As the nights get longer and colder and the plight of those sleeping rough becomes more acute, the Friends of St Petroc's are appealing for sleeping bags. If you have any unwanted sleeping bags taking up space in your cupboard under the stairs or in the loft which you would like to donate, please leave them in the Narthex next to the Food for the Homeless basket, clearly label 'Friends of St Petroc's'.
